

BRA COUTURE KC

Bra Couture KC wants to thank you for your generous donation to help raise the funds needed to help underinsured and uninsured patients going through cancer treatment. We are a part of KCTV5's Take Five to Care Program and advertise in the KC Star's Newspaper and Spaces Magazine, HerLife Magazine, and The Independent. BCKC's sizeable social media presence leading up to the event includes multiple websites and numerous promotional email blasts. We reach over 6 million Kansas Citians every year. Sponsor logos are displayed on our website, at the event and in the event program.

BRA COUTURE KC

In-Kind Sponsors

NOTES:

1. A discount on goods and services, unless pre-approved by the Bra Couture Committee, does not constitute as an in-kind donation.
2. Sponsors may contribute an additional monetary donation to achieve the level of sponsorship they wish to obtain above and beyond their initial in-kind donation.
3. Donations must be valued at a published retail value and not an inflated value to receive additional benefits.
4. Sponsors that give Bra Couture KC a discount off retail value where Bra Couture is still making a purchase will not be valued at the 70% TRUE VALUE rule.
5. Donation that are proved to be an actual loss in revenue, based on income and not based on cost of product will be valued at 100% vs. the -30% retail donation value.
6. Bra Couture KC policy does not allow the sale of outside product or services unless 100% of the proceeds go to Bra Couture KC. If you wish to sell items at the Bra Couture Event, prior approval must be granted from the committee.
7. Bra Couture KC policy does not allow the promotion of any other non-profit at our events.
8. Art that is donated cannot be considered at retail value unless 3rd party appraisal is provided.
9. Potential Sponsors may contact Bra Couture KC for proposals to substitute any benefit for ones provided in the standard benefits. Proposals will be presented to the committee for review.
